

PREMISE EVACUATION SYSTEM

ABSTRACT

5 An evacuation system using a combination of elements, such as an on-site weather station (2), a computer system (1) with proprietary software, sensors and other elements to determine a safe direction of evacuation from a premises (11). in case of a threat, use indicators to determine the direction of evacuation and notification of parties external to the premises (11) of evacuation.